On the following pages, this field will show each of the relevant projects or related references from our work.

"Michael Stuber has contributed to develop a very specific Bayer MaterialScience storyline, which integrates Diversity & Inclusion as a business imperative supporting the execution of our business strategy. Through his experience in rolling out Diversity & Inclusion programs in global companies, he has been and is a valuable sparring partner with high credibility for our top leaders as well as the members of the Executive Committee." Dr. Tony van Osselaer, Executive Committee member of Bayer MaterialScience and Sponsor of the Diversity & Inclusion initiative (2014)

1. VISION & IDENTITY

Diversity is our core business

We are a pan-European service and consulting firm exclusively focused on adding value in the field of Diversity Management and Marketing. Since 1997, our approach to diversity, open-mindedness and inclusion is best characterised by ‘comprehensive, international & innovative’. Our vision is to be the Nr. 1 full-service provider in the area of Diversity Management and Marketing for leading international companies in Europe.

Sustainability and the belief in the value of Diversity

We live the value of Diversity. Our innovative and co-operative work environment is part of our identity that leads to professional, creative and comprehensive solutions for our clients. In order to build and nurture our leading-edge competence and outstanding knowledge in Diversity Management and Marketing, we have been carrying out surveys and ongoing research for almost ten years. We maintain databases to manage our literature, statistics, corporate practices and bibliography. We utilise the wealth of information for our extensive publications and frequent speaking engagements. In addition, our networking activities in the academic world, with NGOs and with the Public Sector have resulted in an exceptional reputation of our firm.

"At HSBC, D&I is a business-lead initiative and as a pan-European committee of managers we were glad to have European Diversity's external perspective and input. Michael Stuber's business acumen and his striving for individual solutions helped to advance the regional D&I agenda taking into account business and country needs. We look forward to continue our collaboration in the future."

Virma Sokmen, Head of CMB HSBC Turkey (December 2012)
